Student Support Services

The following support services are to be available and accessible for all students studying with MILCOM Institute. The Institute will provide students with contact details to refer any matters that require further follow up with relevant professionals. Any referrals are conducted by the Institute at no cost to the student, but fees and charges may apply where an external service is used by the student and this should be clarified by the student prior to using such services outside of the Institute.

- Study and Life in Australia

All students go through an Orientation Program during at MILCOM Institute before the commencement of their course. The Orientation program involves familiarisation with the campus, facilities and living and studying in Brisbane. Contents of Orientation program include:

- Orientation to Life in Brisbane and Australia and a tour of MILCOM Institute
- Details of the course, timetable, staff members contact details
- Welfare and Academic issues
- Information on other support available e.g. Legal, emergency and health services available
- Visa requirements and their work conditions
- Overview on ATO requirements and their employment right

- English Language and Study Assistance Programs

Identifying LLN Support Prior to Enrolment or Commencement:

LLN Test (if deemed necessary) would be administered prior to enrolment into qualifications within MILCOM Institute's scope of registration. Test would be administered by qualified LLN Trainer and Assessor. The main aim of the test is to identify particular skills of the student such as literacy, numeracy and English language, in order to meet the requirement of qualification they wish to enrol in. If a gap is identified, learners would be recommended to undertake foundation skills courses or other strategies would be adopted to make support available, prior to enrolment in that qualification.

Student Support Services Policy and Procedure

Student Support during training:

MILCOM Institute will facilitate access to learning support services consistent with the requirements of the course, mode of study and the learning needs of overseas student cohorts, including having and implementing documented processes for supporting and maintaining contact with overseas students.

During training, the Trainer/Assessor may identify the need for additional learner support and discusses options with the Training Manager. The Trainer/Assessor will create a short report in conjunction with the Administration Manager and Training Manager.

When support needs arise, the Training Manager and the relevant Trainers/Assessors will prepare a strategy and plan a range of support needs for each individual learner identified. Support needs may include, but are not limited to:

- Modification of Training and Assessment resources.
- Modification of the classroom configuration to improve mobility.
- Referral to ELICOS or other language courses.
- Referral to an external agency (e.g. Department of Home Affairs)
- Creation of an Individual Training Plan

Responsibilities for initiating the above support services are:

Learner Support	Responsibility	Approval
Modification of Training and Assessment resources	Trainer/Assessors	Training Manager
Modification of the classroom configuration to improve mobility	Trainer/Assessors	Training Manager
Referral to ELICOS or other language courses	Trainer/Assessors	Training Manager
Referral to an external agency (e.g. Department of Home Affairs)	Training Manager	CEO
Creation of an Individual Training Plan	Administration Manager	Training Manager
Monitoring of Individual Training Plans	Administration Manager	Training Manager

- Facilities and resources

At orientation students are given a guided tour of the campus and all MILCOM Institute's facilities and during that process they will become aware of all the resources available to them.

- Policies and Procedures

All students will be given a brief about relevant policies and procedures, not limited to MILCOM Institute's course progress policy and procedure, Refund policy and procedure and Complaints and Appeal policy and procedure. Student will be able to access these policies by requesting student support officer or Administration Manager or through the MILCOM website www.milcom.edu.au

- Work Rights

At Orientation, all students will be given an overview on their student visa conditions, including work limitations, ATO legislations, Tax File Number, Fair Work Ombudsman, etc.

- Academic issues

Students may have concerns with their academic performance or other related issues that are placing them at risk of not achieving the requirements of their course. Students are able to gain advice and support in ensuring they maintain appropriate academic levels and general support to ensure they achieve satisfactory results in their studies.

Students' course progress is monitored; and guidance and support provided where non-satisfactory results are identified. A student is able to access the student support officer to discuss any academic or other related issues to studying at the Institute at any time. The student support officer will be able to provide advice and guidance, or referral, where required.

- Personal / Social issues

There are many issues that may affect a student's social or personal life and Students have access to the Support officer through normal Institute hours to gain advice and guidance on personal issues, accommodation issues, or family/friend issues. Where the Student Support Officer feels further support should be gained, a referral to an appropriate support service will be organised.

- Accommodation

While MILCOM Institute does not offer accommodation services or take any responsibility for accommodation arrangements the Institute is able to refer students to appropriate accommodation services and are always available to discuss any issues or concerns a student may have with their accommodation arrangements. All students are encouraged to have accommodation organised prior to arrival in Australia but the Student Support Officer can refer students to appropriate accommodation services.

- Medical Issues

Student Support Officers will have a list of medical professionals within access from the Institute location and any student with medical concerns should inform the student support officer who will assist them in finding an appropriate medical professional. Local medical services can be gained from the student support officer. For any critical incident, MILCOM Institute have a documented critical Incident policy and procedure for managing critical incidents that could affect the overseas student's ability to undertake or complete a course. Critical incidents are not limited to, but could include:

- Missing students;
- Severe verbal or psychological aggression;
- Death, serious injury or any threat of these;
- Natural disaster; and

For more details, please refer to Critical Incident – Policy and Procedure.

- Legal Services

MILCOM Institute is able to provide some advice and guidance on a limited range of situations. Where the Student Support Officer feels it appropriate for you to gain professional legal advice they will refer you to an appropriate legal professional.

- Social Programs

Apart from the Student Orientation Program the Student Support Officer will occasionally organise social events that allow all students enrolled with the Institute to mingle and socialise. These events may range from cultural and sightseeing events, to dinners, excursions and sporting events. They will be organised as demand requires and any suggestions can be forwarded to the Student Support Officer.

Student Support Services Referral List

The Student Support Officer can provide links to external sources of support where staff at MILCOM Institute are not qualified, or it is in the student's best interests to seek professional advice. All preferred/ suitable external links will be listed on the Student Support Services Referral List, which is also maintained by the Student Support Officer.
